HOW TO SUBMIT A PANEL PROPOSAL

Submitting a panel proposal involves a two-step process. First, you'll begin by entering the overall panel information. In this section, you'll provide the names, affiliations of the chair and discussant if you have them. Second, and once the panel's information is submitted, you'll be prompted to enter the presenter details.

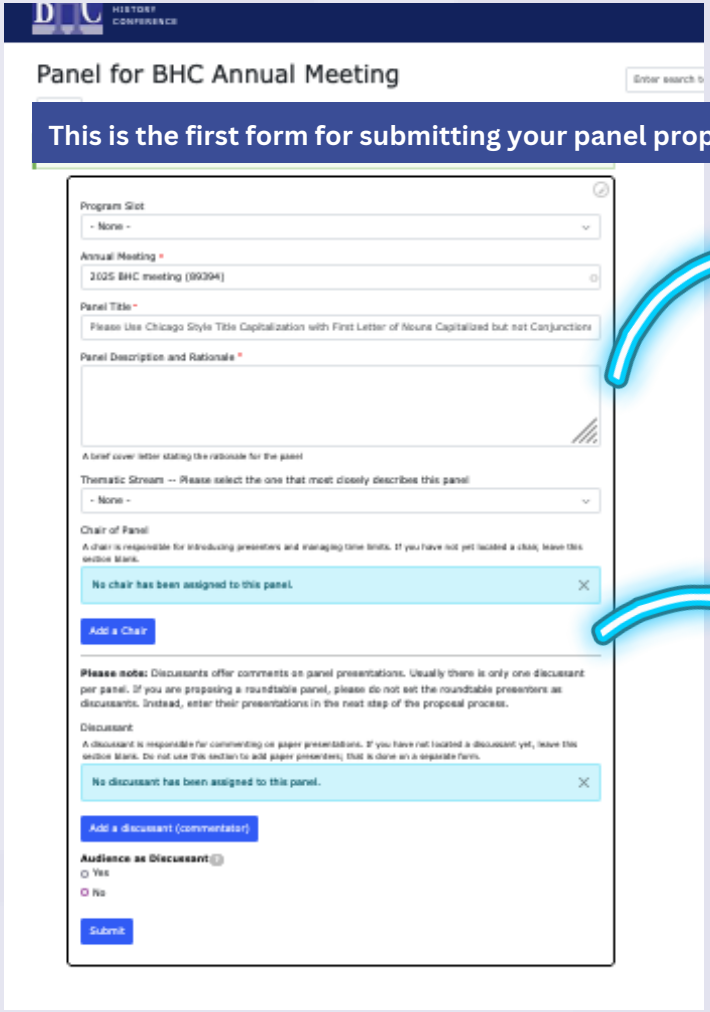

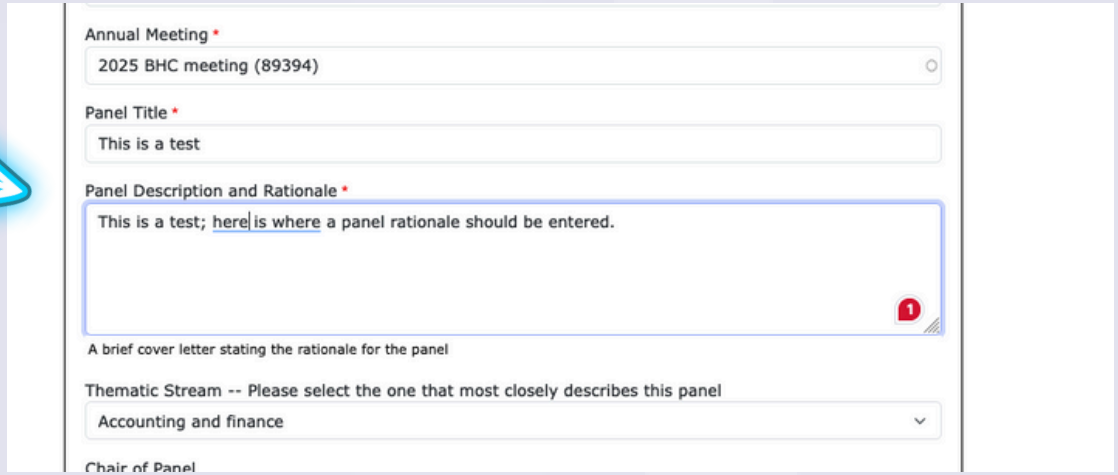

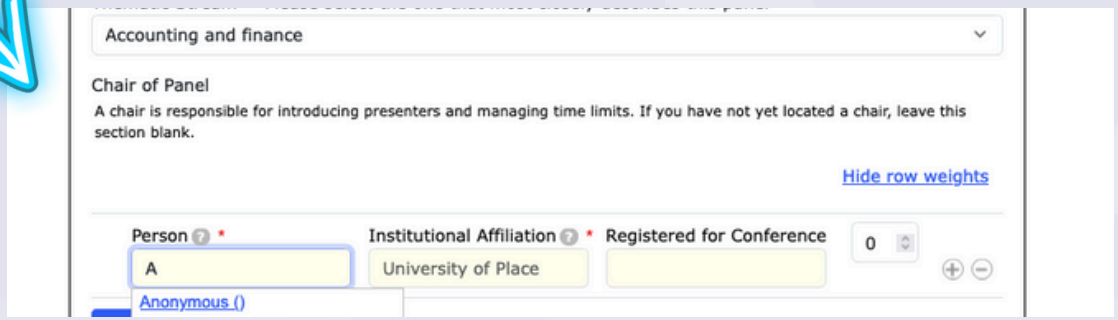

HOW TO SUBMIT A PANEL PROPOSAL

In the first form of the Panel Proposal submission process, please enter the overall panel details. If the panel has a designated Chair and Discussant, include their information as well. If these roles have not been assigned yet, they can be added later.

In the second step, after completing the first form of the panel proposal, you will receive both a prompt message on the website and a confirmation email (to your BHC's account email address). At this point, you can continue submitting all the presenters' details, or you can complete this step later via the link in the email you just received. Panel organizers can access their panels before submitting them through the link in the "Your BHC Panel Proposal: Instructions for Submitting Individual Presentations" email.

Rationale:

This is a test; here is where a panel rationale should be entered.

Prompt message after submitting the panel first form has been submitted

Your submission of the proposed panel, "This is a test," to the 2025 BHC meeting has been received.

PLEASE NOTE: Your proposal is not yet complete.

To complete your proposal, please submit all individual paper presentations using the following link:

https://thebhc.org/form/paper-proposal?panel=3153&proposal_type=Panel+Paper

The paper should be attached to "Panel Proposal: Submission #424".

It is possible for individual presenters to upload their own information; please give them the web link above so that they attach their papers to the correct panel.

You can view the structure and content of your proposed panel at https://thebhc.org/panel_viewer/3153

If you have questions about the submission process, please contact the Web Editor of the BHC at web-editor@thebhc.org.
